

What Nursery can do for you?

- Identify if any additional support is needed for your child's development, our aim is early intervention
- Introduce play plans to support your child's progress
- Refer to outside agencies for additional support
- Co-ordinate initial meetings
- Can offer information and guidance to parents and families
- Can assist with transition to schools for children with special educational needs and disabilities
- EHCP referrals
- Child development forums meetings